Re: New Booking Process for Civil and Family Lengthy Chambers in Vancouver

Effective January 1, 2026, the Court will transition to online booking for civil and family lengthy chambers (matters over two hours). There will be two separate processes for booking: one for newly released chambers dates, and one for currently available chambers dates.

For newly released dates:

- Parties/counsel will submit, within a booking window of seven days, a ranked list of their preferred dates among the newly released dates. After the booking window has closed, parties/counsel who submitted requests will receive an email confirming whether their request was successful or not.
- Note: In recognition of January, 2026 being the first month of the new booking process, there will be an extended booking window from January 1st – 14th ensuring users have sufficient time to utilize the new booking process.

For currently available dates:

- For lengthy chambers dates that are currently available, parties/counsel will be able to book online the same way they would book for conferences (CPCs, JCCs, and TMCs).

New dates for all Civil and Family lengthy chambers will continue to be released two months out on a rolling basis. The window to request those dates will open on the 1st of each month and close on the 7th, inclusive of weekends and holidays. The table (page 2) outlines the booking schedule.

Please be advised that these newly released dates can only be booked using the Court Online Booking System (COBS). More information on COBS can be found here.

Scheduling will be able to assist parties/counsel who are unable to book online by calling 604-660-2853.

Please consult the Court Calendars posted on the Scheduling website here for a detailed list of sitting days each month.
